MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Human Rights

1. Now that Cord Meyer is gone are we still turning in weekly reports on human rights?

2. Would it be possible at this juncture to develop a scoreboard on the progress in human rights since the Carter Administration took office, country by country, where there have been significant improvements or regressions? In short, could we pull something together that isn't so extensive as to be unusable but still capture the sense of the trends.

[redacted] stated to me that he knew that there was a massive Soviet effort to build a new port in the southern part of Angola. He said they had furnished us this information. Do we put any credence in this?

At the Congressional leadership briefing I was asked whether UNITA was supporting SWAPO. I said no, they were in competition, sometimes fought each other. Is that correct?

I was asked whether Neto was supporting SWAPO and I said yes. Is that correct?
